Bible Verse of the Month:

Though the cherry trees don't blossom
and the strawberries don't ripen,
Though the apples are worm-eaten
and the wheat fields stunted,
Though the sheep pens are sheepless
and the cattle barns empty,
I'm singing joyful praise to God.
I'm turning cartwheels of joy to my Savior God.
Counting on God's Rule to prevail,
I take heart and gain strength.
I run like a deer.
I feel like I'm king of the mountain!

Habakkuk 3:17-19

Some days are hard days. Some days, things do not go right. But even on those days, we can thank God. We can sing and dance, because we know who God is and that we are God's children! Even on those hard days, God gives us strength and courage.

Do you like to do cartwheels? Do you like to run? Do you like to sing? Those are gifts God gave you! Feel the joy of them!

God loves you, and so do I.
Pastor Liz

November is Native American Heritage Month!

This month we celebrate and honor Native American culture, traditions, and history. In Anchorage, we acknowledge that we live on the traditional lands of the Dena'ina Ełnena people.

SPOTLIGHT: Elizabeth Peratrovich was a member of the Lukaax̄.ádi clan in the Raven moiety of the Tlingit nation. She helped write and pass into Alaska law an anti-discrimination bill in 1945.

GRATITUDE

Make this meaningful decoration for your Thanksgiving table.

What you need:

- Construction paper (in fall colors)
- Scissors
- Pen
- Jar
- Stapler
- Adult help

What you do:

1. Cut the paper into strips about 2 inches wide.
2. Place the strips and pen in the jar. Then set it in a prominent place in your home.
3. Throughout November, have family discussions about what you're thankful to God for. Write or draw each item on a paper strip.
4. Make a paper chain by linking and carefully stapling the strips.
5. Keep adding to your decoration and display it during your Thanksgiving meal.
